Call for Papers

IAAE 2014 Annual Conference
International Association for Applied Econometrics
Conference

Queen Mary University of London, June 26-28, 2014

The first annual conference of the International Association for Applied Econometrics will be held at Queen Mary University of London, on June 26-28, 2014.

The main aims of IAAE are to advance the education of the public in the subject of econometrics and its applications to a variety of fields in economics, in particular, but not exclusively, by advancing and supporting research in that field, and disseminating the results of such useful research to the public.

The conference will bring together leading researchers in the field and will be a major forum where all aspects of econometrics (theory and practice) will be discussed and debated.
